

What information do we collect?

We don't collect any of your personal information.

What do we use your information for?

We don't use your information for anything because we don't have it.

How do we protect your information?

Your sensitive information is protected in the iOS keychain.

Third party links

We may include, offer or allow you to link third party services on Hexlist. These third party services have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activity of these linked sites, services, or applications.

If you connect a third party service it may say that Hexlist wants access to some of your personal information. We do not collect or store this information anywhere but on your device. This can include access to files or folders, your email, or other content. To reiterate: we do not attempt to store the information exposed by third parties on a remote server or transmit this information to a third party outside of your device.

We collect basic usage statistics through the Fabric Answers analytics platform. There is no personally identifiable information in these analytics.

End User License Agreement

Please view our End User License Agreement under the settings popover in the Hexlist app. This End User License Agreement establishes the use, disclaimers, and limitations of liability governing the use of Hexlist.

Your Consent

By using Hexlist you consent to this privacy policy.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

If we decide to change our privacy policy we will post the changes in app where you are reading this now. (modified on 01/21/2016)
